

Postal Mail Entry Form (if NOT using the online form):

TOGA's Youth Annual Writing Competition: "Consider the Oyster"

Name and Address:

Email (avoid school-based emails because outsiders may be blocked):

Phone (with area code):

Age:

Gender:

Grade:

School Name (note if home-schooled):

School Address:

Teacher's Name AND Phone (if applicable):

Title of my essay entry (your own title on the entry):

Word Count:

Parent or Guardian: Please sign or print your name confirming approval for your child to enter the TOGA Youth (grades 6-8) Writing Competition.

Our/My child has our/ my permission to submit an article for judging in the TOGA Youth (Grades 6-8) Writing Competition in accordance with the rules posted on the TOGA website. Members of TOGA are granted permission to contact our/ my child via telephone, email or regular postal mail regarding their competition submission, for notification of award status and attendance of the awards presentation. By submitting the article to the competition we grant permission for TOGA to post or publish the article in publications or web sites as deemed appropriate by the TOGA Competition Judges with compensation being limited to writer credit to the student author to reward and recognize writing excellence, and to promote the competition throughout the year.

Parent Signature:

Signature Date:

Contact information (if different from the student):

Print and complete this Entry Form and send with your essay as specified in Guidelines, via postal mail to: Terry Lewis, Board Member, Tidewater Oyster Gardeners Association Youth Writing Competition 11339 Water View Place Gloucester, VA 23061.